LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

Hello All,

Happy Holidays as we ring in 2007. Let's hope this year is peaceful and productive. Bob Tower is scheduled to demonstrate for the January meeting. He was written up on the Santa Clara Home Tour brochure for his book called, "Seventy Years In Silicon Valley". He has over eighty photos and illustrations and will focus on them. We still need volunteers for many of the clubs positions. Think about your skills and how you'd like to donate your time to your club.

Rose Hudson

TIPS FOR AUGUST

- Good artists are pack rats who collect any and all ideas that may become useful some day.
- Great art is a remarkable feat of organization. Every part wonderful in itself, but more important, is alive in sharing in the making of the unity of the whole. Much art is remarkable for the skill it displays, but lacks that surge of life, that unity.

HOLIDAY LUNCHEON

There were thirty people who attended our annual holiday luncheon at the Del Monte Restaurant. Our new member, Albert Rivera, entertained us during the "happy hour" with guitar music and singing. Albert's music was thoroughly enjoyed and contributed a lot to a festive party mood. Following lunch, Bernie Romasko started our program with the installation of the four newly elected officers for the new year. Kotoko Dangerfield announced the Artist of the Year awards as follows:

General Category: Gerald Paz

Winners Circle: Wendell Fiock and Flo Bey

(tied) Masters Category: Bud Hunziker

Gerald Paz and Joy Kuo both advanced from General Category to Winners Circle.

Congratulations to all of you.

Our outgoing president, Connie O'Connell, thanked her board for their help during the year and presented them with gifts. Connie, in turn, was presented with a thank you gift for her three years of leadership for the Club. We enjoyed the exchange of gifts and door prizes next. The event ended with group singing lead by Pat Gora. Our Historian, Yao-pi Hsu, did a fine job photographing at our event, also. Many thanks to all of you who participated in attendance and contributions to the program.
